HEAVY DUTY Retractable Awnings
for Residential – Commercial

As a business owner you know the importance of providing your customers with the most enjoyable environment possible. Our 9700hd Retractable Awning is the answer. Heavy duty construction with a soft elegant design combines the essentials for comfort and reliability. Awnings provide a cool, relaxing and tranquil place to share great times with friends and family. Why wait another day, creating a NuImage at your place of business could not be easier, or more affordable.

SUN WHEN YOU WANT IT...
SHADE WHEN YOU NEED IT.

NuImage Awnings allow you to expand beyond your homes interior boundaries by turning your deck or patio into added living space. We are proud to offer you the 9700hd Retractable Awning with excellence achieved in every detail. Aesthetically, this awning will add extraordinary color and beauty to your homes exterior. Functionally, it will provide protection from harmful UV sun rays on the outside, while helping to lower your summer cooling costs on the inside. Absolutely maintenance free, easy to operate and very affordable are just a few benefits of awning ownership.

Don't be fooled, beauty is not just skin deep with this awning. Technology and design go deep into the frame construction starting with a powder coated steel and aluminum support system. With projections exceeding fourteen feet, performance is everything. Heavy duty retractable arms with stainless steel tension control provide a smooth dependable performance that will last a lifetime. We proudly complete this awning with award winning Sunbrella Fabrics, proven to simply be the best!
